"There is a woman behind every successful man" is an adage. Many men achievers owe their success in their lives to their wives. Dr. K. V. Kupusamy is one such great man.

The Polytechnic College that was started in 1983 under the aegis of Rathinavel Subramaniam Educational Trust (RVS) has burgeoned into a mammoth group of 10 educational institutions in a span of three decades and has left incredible imprints in the annals of education in Tamil Nadu. This whopping achievement is due to the tremendous efforts of Dr. K. V. Kupusamy to whom Shrimathi. K. Padmavathy, his wife was indeed a pillar of support. Shedding her mortal coils, she reached the heavenly abode on the 6th November 2012.

In commemoration of this distinguished woman, Bhaktavatsalam Memorial College for Women takes pride in installing "Shrimathi K. Padmavathy Ammal Outstanding Women Achiever's Awards" from the year 2013 for the most distinguished women achievers who have totally committed themselves to the service of the society.
